

Bergen Community College

Radiation Therapy Conference

Earn
6 CE credits approved by the ASRT

Join us for this NEW opportunity to learn about cutting-edge advancements in the radiation therapy field, earn continuing education (CE) credits, and network with colleagues. With your conference registration and attendance, you will be provided with a complimentary breakfast and lunch and will earn 6 CE credits approved by the American Society of Radiologic Technologists (ASRT). All conference proceeds benefit the Scholarship for Radiation Students at Bergen Community College. Enjoy the time to network and end the day with the chance to enter raffles to win an iPad along with a number of other devices.
